GUTTENBURGLEFT

De Lacey, New York's Pool-Room King, Refuses Commissions on that Track.

BEATITUDE A BIG SURPRISE.

Indigo, Seabright, Panway, Menthol and Vera Were the Other Lucky Ones.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK.

The poor card was no doubt responsible for the slim attendance at Guttensburg this afternoon.

The weather was very pleasant and just the kind to tempt one to take an outing.

When the entries closed last night, however, a howling blizzard was in progress, and owners no doubt thought that the track would be in very bad condition today. They cannot be blamed, therefore, because they kept their horses in their stables.

The poor card caused Tetra to be noisy, the leaders of the city press-sellers to post a notice in the paper to the effect that no commissions would be taken in Guttensburg. It is said that Mr. De Lacey will refuse to take the entries from the little up-track until the clearing of the racing impediment.

The track is dry, while soft and deep, was in very bad condition.

Tetra managed to cover six furlongs in 1:31½, the opening dash, which shows that he is going fairly quick.

It was at one time 6:11 in the betting, but a plunge at the close nearly caused the books to wipe him off the boards. Tetra, the favorite, was an glorious last all the way. Biscuit, an outsider, was second and Panway was well played and finished third.

The second race furnished the talent with a surprise, they bet on Tetra, because it was thought the race was all over, but the surprising and casting off, beautifying galloping, which was quite unusual, won the race by 1½ lengths. The winner was a few days ago, but the track, which consider him within pounds of Panway, Jersey Lass, Tetra, who, it seems could do justice to them.

LUCKY CLOVER MADE HAY.

NEEDHAM KROCKED OUT.

Mader, the Australian, Defeated Him in 3:12 Records.

BUTTE, Mont., March 1.—Twelve hundred people witnessed the fight between W. A. Mader, the Australian boxer, and Needham, before the Butte Athletic Club, yesterday. The bout was fought at 6:30 p.m. and ended in a draw, each having won two of the five rounds.

Needham, during his long career, has been beaten only the way, beating out others who was equal to the good fight. The latter goes away badly but made a lot of ground.

He was then sent to the hospital.
